

CConstit: The Council Mobile App

To better acquaint the public with its work, on 4 October 2017, the Constitutional Council launched a mobile application that allows users to follow its activities in real time on all mobile devices. The application is free and available for Apple and Android devices, and allows users to consult case law, set up alerts for when new decisions are made, and better understand the different activities of the Constitutional Council.

Download CConstit, the Council's mobile app :

On the Appstore / On Google Play